

Shed News from the Committee and Coordinator

1/2/ 2018
Hi Shedders

Writers Group will resume on Monday 12th February, from 9.30am, come along and hear some of the amusing tales of life growing up, we are sure you will be able to relate to some of them and even get inspired to put pen to paper yourself.

Wednesday 21st February from 10.10am some poetry and a good story, orated by our very own Brian Bourke, this is something new and different so come along and lend your ear, it will be entertaining for sure.

Mens Health session – Me, you and our Prostate, Tuesday 27th February commencing 10am, an informed discussion and opportunity to share something close to all of us. Doctor Rob Irwin will facilitate an open forum of enlightenment, don't miss this one.

Bruce and Graeme are in the process of fitting a watering system to the raised garden beds, after which we will call on Paul at the Lansdowne Nursery to again donate seedling plants to get the gardens growing again. 90% of the produce grown is delivered to the Food bank to help out families in need. If you would like to join the team by tending the crops just 1 hour per week come on in.

Reminder that your annual membership subscription was due to be paid by the end of January and thanks to the 38% of members who did, now for the rest, your $30 can be paid into the shed bank

Account name: HENLEY MENS SHED INC.

Account number: 38-9014-0133438-00
account _____, use you name as reference, or make your payment by cash or cheque at the shed.

If you are at a loose end and looking for a small task to complete pop on down to the shed and see what we are up to.

And by all means bring another bloke with you, show them around your shed and the things that blokes get up to on a daily basis, there's always room for another bloke in the shed.

"See you at the Shed again soon"
